7. Liability

7.1 The College shall have no liability to the Student for any loss, damages, costs, expenses or other claims for compensation arising in connection with the Student's participation in the Courses provided by the College except in relation to death or personal injury caused by the negligence of the College or its servants.

7.2 The College shall have no liability to the Student for any loss, damages, costs, expenses or other claims for compensation arising in connection with cancellation or delays in the Student's travel arrangements or as a result of any event or action outside the College's control including but not limited to strikes, disasters, war or threat of war, acts of terrorism, quarantine, weather and sickness.

8. Students

8.1. The College accepts Students on the assumption that they are in good health unless otherwise informed by you.

8.2. All sports and activities are undertaken at the students' own risk.

8.3. Student Illness. In case of illness or injury the College will follow the advice of the attending medical consultant unless advised otherwise by the parent/guardian. Each centre is registered with a local medical practice/hospital/doctor. Student may be charged for a consultation with a doctor. In case of medical emergency, all students are taken to the nearest Accident and Emergency Hospital.

8.4. The College reserve the right to take any fair and reasonable action we think appropriate should a situation arise not covered by these Terms.

8.5. The student will be expected to lodge a £50 or €60 damage deposit with the school on arrival. This deposit will be returned at the end of their stay, minus any costs incurred.

9. Exclusion and Expulsion

9.1 The Student will be expelled from participation in Courses provided by the College if, in the College's reasonable opinion, the Student has behaved in a manner which amounts to gross misconduct. The student will be withdrawn from the course with immediate effect and will need to return home at the parent's expense at the earliest possible opportunity. Refunds will not be offered for remaining days when a child is excluded.

Reasons for exclusion may include but are not limited to;

- Purchase or use of illegal drugs,
- Purchase or use of alcohol,
- Involvement in violent or abusive behaviour,
- Shoplifting or stealing,
- Possession of weapons,
- Any other serious Criminal Offence.

10. Complaints

10.1 All formal complaints against any aspect of the services the College provide for Students should in the first instance be made to the Managing Director or their representative at the Student's Campus not later than 28 days after the end of the Student's Course.

10.2 In the event that the matter is not resolved to the Student's reasonable satisfaction, the Student, or his agent, should make an immediate complaint in writing to the College's address stated above. The complaint will be investigated and if in the College's reasonable opinion an appropriate recompense (financial or otherwise) will be made.

11. General

11.1 These Terms and the Courses are governed by the Laws of Scotland and the Student agrees to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Scottish Courts.

11.2 The College's website, brochures and other publicity materials are the responsibility of the College, and the details are published in good faith as of January 2026.
